

Bryn Mawr Vineyards Willamette Valley Pinot Noir

- Bryn Mawr Willamette Pinot Noir is created from our estate vineyards, and two neighbors in the Eola-Amity Hills appellation in Willamette Valley, Oregon.
- Our vineyards are among the coolest, steepest, rockiest, and windiest sites within the Willamette Valley. All those factors lead to smaller production. Small = Better
- Our winemakers have a broad range of flavors to select from by planting different clones of Pinot Noir on many vineyard aspects (hill tops, valleys, east, west, etc.)
- The name Bryn Mawr comes from the Welsh meaning 'big hill'
